Shema/And You Shall Love

(Debbie Friedman)

*Sh'ma Yisrael: Adonai Eloheinu, Adonai, Adonai echad!
Baruch shem k'vod, shem k'vod malchuto l'olam,
l'olam va-ed.*

(please be seated)

And you shall love Adonai your God
with all your heart,
With all your soul, and with all of your might.
And all these words which I command
you on this day

Shall be in your heart, shall be in your heart.

V'ahavta b'chol-l'vav'cha Uvchol-nafsh'cha uvchol-m'odecha.

And you shall teach them diligently
unto your children,
And you shall speak of them
when you sit in your house,
When you walk by the way,
and when you lie down,
And when you rise up, and when you rise up.

*V'shinantam l'vanecha v'dibarta bam
B'shivt'cha b'veitecha,
Uvlecht'cha vaderech, uvshochb'cha uvkumecha.*

And you shall bind them
for a sign upon your hand,
And they shall be for frontlets between your eyes.
And you shall write them on the doorposts
of your house,

And upon your gates, and upon your gates.

*Ukshartam l'ot al-yadecha;
V'hayu l'totafot bein einecha;
Uchtavtam al-m'zuzot beitecha, uvisharecha.*

That you may remember and do all of My commandments,
And be holy unto your God, unto your God,
unto your God.

Sh'ma Yisrael: Adonai echad!

Worship Code of Conduct

To help maintain the reverence of our High Holy Day Services, below are reminders of our Temple's Code of Conduct:

- ◆ Please refrain from conversation during services.
- ◆ Please turn all electronic devices to silent.
- ◆ When the Congregation is standing, involved in silent meditation, the Torah is being read, or the Rabbi is speaking, do not enter or leave the Sanctuary.

Thank you to all of our volunteers who are serving as Ushers and Greeters for the High Holy Days.

From the Rabbis

*“One needs something to believe in,
something for which one can have whole-hearted enthusiasm.
One needs to feel that one’s life has meaning, that one is needed in this world.”*

— Hannah Szenes

Every New Year comes bearing gifts — a clean slate, new possibilities, an invitation to find and embrace hope. Have we ever needed to turn the page to a New Year more than we do now?

As we come together to welcome 5785, our liturgy over these High Holy Days guides us to the essence of what it means to be part of the Jewish community:

Belief in our ability to change and grow. Belief in humanity’s capacity to learn from our mistakes and, at any moment, chart a new course. Belief that, when the slate is wiped clean, what remains is inherently good and worthy.

Enthusiasm for compassion, equality, and justice. For a world that overwhelms us with awe, whether we look to the vastness of the heavens or the tiniest shell on the shores of the sea. For the beauty we find in nature, in the creativity of the human spirit, in the diversity of human souls.

As we resolve ourselves with inspiration for Rosh HaShanah, we find meaning in the ancient words and modern reflections woven together in the pages of our prayer books. Meaning in the soaring melodies of the choir and the soul-stirring sound of the shofar. Meaning in the words of Torah that connect generation to generation to generation.

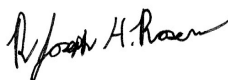

We are so glad you are here with us on these most sacred days. We need community to ground us, recalibrate our moral compasses, help us find the resilience to recommit to our goals and the pursuit of our highest aspirations — and your community needs you.

With every hope and wish that 5785 may be for you and all of us a year of hope, of sweetness, and of peace.

L’shanah tovah u’metukah,

Rabbi Stephanie M. Alexander

Rabbi Joseph H. Rosen

From the President

On behalf of KKBE's Board of Trustees, volunteers, and staff, I am delighted to wish each of you and your families a meaningful High Holy Day season and a peaceful New Year as we enter 5785. As a congregation we are truly blessed with a strong and ever-growing community.

Our services are carefully planned to provide opportunity for communal worship, private reflection, and song. As always, the amount of planning and work that this requires is tremendous. Thank you to Rabbi Alexander and Rabbi Rosen, our staff, the Ritual Committee, Bates O'Neal and Koleinu, and the many volunteers who make the High Holy Days happen.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to our High Holy Day Patrons, our Mitzvah Members, and to each of you who make additional contributions through the year. Thank you for giving your time, talent, and treasure to plan and execute our programs and activities. Your involvement is what joins us as a community and makes us stronger as a congregation.

An additional thank you to all who have given to KKBE's Endowment, and to our Society of 1749 members who have included KKBE in their estate plans. Embracing a culture of philanthropy is not always easy, but it is what we must do if we are to remain viable. KKBE is where we turn for our life cycle events, both happy and sad. This is where we turn for spiritual and cultural enrichment. This is where we turn to ensure that our Jewish values are passed on from generation to generation.

Our thanks extend as well to all of you who have supported our 275th anniversary, by attending our many events, helping to plan and volunteer, and of course, by your generous sponsorships. You are all part of our history, and our future.

Please continue to support KKBE to the best of your ability, helping us to guarantee the financial sustainability of our beloved congregation for generations to come.

L'shanah tovah u'metuka! May this be a healthy, happy, and sweet New Year for each of you and your families.

Naomi Gorstein

October 7th Marking One Year

Date: October 7

Time: 6:30 PM

Mt. Pleasant

Register for exact location

 bit.ly/ChsOct7Event

On October 7, the Charleston Jewish Community will gather to mark one year since the devastating attacks of 2023. This day will serve as a powerful reminder of the strength found in unity and the importance of standing together during times of grief and reflection.

We invite you to join us as we honor the memory of those murdered and show solidarity with those still held hostage. Through shared prayers, testimony, and music, we will create a space for grieving and healing. We hope you will stand with us. Youth programming will be available,

Important: Registration is required. For security purposes, we will close registration at midnight on 10/4. Anyone who has not registered will not be allowed in the building. Please make sure to register in advance.

Sukkot Service and Sephardic Sukk-Out

Wednesday, October 16 at 5:30PM

It's a return to our roots as we celebrate our Sephardic heritage in a Sukkah with Iberian inspired decorations and a feast featuring food flavored with Spanish/Portuguese flare. We'll also serve the Lady Baltimore Cake, made famous in the early 20th century by KKBE's members of Sephardic descent, Nina and Florence Ottolengui. Price is $25 for members and $36 for non-members. There is a cap of $100 per family. Registration is required for dinner.

RSVP on the KKBE Website

Simchat Torah

Friday, October 23 at 5:30PM

Join your KKBE Family for a fun family evening with crafts, unrolling the Torah, dinner, Israeli dancing, and more! RSVP on the KKBE Website.
